Why: The Da Vinci Science Center and the City of Easton are preparing to enter into the master-planning phase of the Da Vinci Science City project. The Science Center and the City of Easton will present residents of Northampton County with a project overview of Da Vinci Science City, providing them with an opportunity to learn more about, ask questions, and offer feedback on the project. Feedback from residents will inform this critical next phase of the project.

Join us for a series of public meetings outlining progress made in planning and funding, as well as an open forum to ask questions and offer feedback about the project.

3145 Hamilton Blvd. Bypass, Allentown, PA 18103 • 484.664.1002 • davincisciencecenter.org
